

Delara Hashemi, flute

Delara Hashemi is a freelance musician and teacher in the Memphis area. She has been second flute for two years with the Memphis Symphony and currently in the 2018-2019 season. She plays with the Memphis Symphony Woodwind Quintet, and plays in the BlueShift Ensemble, Gemini Duo, and River City Flute Quartet. Her ensemble, River City Flute Quartet was selected by the National Flute Association (NFA) to perform at the annual 2017 NFA convention in Minneapolis, as well as 2018 NFA Convention in Orlando. Delara was the 2011 and 2012 Music Teachers National Association State Winner in Oklahoma, Young Artist Performance – Woodwinds.

Ms. Hashemi completed degrees in flute performance at the University of Memphis where she studied flute with Prof. Elise Blatchford, and the University of Central Oklahoma where she studied flute with Dr. Emily Butterfield

